

presented by Walmart  and P&G

Game of Your Life

When high school gamer Zach Taylor lands a scholarship to an exclusive video game design program led by billionaire gaming icon Marcus Bentton, his future takes a promising turn... as long as he can survive the intense freshmen project that eliminates half of the class in the first three months. Teamed up with determined group leader Sara and his brilliant yet socially awkward roommates, Donald and Phillip, the four set out to involve the entire campus in a quirky new social interactive game. As the project intensifies, Zach learns that his father is in financial trouble. Distracted and desperate to help, he accepts an opportunity to work with Bentton on a secretive and suspicious side project. Zach finds himself stretched to his limits and torn between his responsibility to the team and his desire to help his father. With nowhere else to turn, he confides in Professor Abbie Lambert and is forced to make a decision that will affect his future and the lives of everyone around him.

Starring:

Nathan Kress (iCarly)

Titus Makin Jr. (Glee)

And Lea Thompson (Back to the Future)

Premieres Friday,
December 2nd 8/7c on NBC.

Values Displayed

Game of Your Life highlights a series of difficult choices that college freshman Zach Taylor must make. While deciding where to place his loyalties – with his family, his class team members or with someone who can help his future career – he's reminded that the choices he makes ultimately affect the people around him. Even though his intentions are good, he learns that decisions still require careful discernment.

Loyalty

Showing continued allegiance and devotion to a person or cause you care about

Responsibility

Personally ensuring that you meet your commitments and obligations

Teamwork / Working Well With Others

Working together in such a way that you focus on the success of the team more than you do on your own personal accomplishments and contributions

Universal Truth

The choices we make impact the people around us.

GAME OF YOUR LIFE

Discussion Starters For Parents

Meaningful talks with your kids are often impromptu. Simply watching TV can spur deep and significant conversations. Game of Your Life touches on a number of important values that may trigger these types of talks. The following discussion starters can help you make the most of these opportunities.

When Zach is given an offer to work on a project for the gaming legend Marcus Bentton, he jumps at the chance. But right away he realizes that there is something suspicious about the job, Yet he agrees to take it anyway. Do you feel Zach should have taken the job if he had concerns about it? How would you have handled the situation?

When Zach learns that his father is in financial trouble, he feels obligated to help. Yet, Zach's team is counting on his help to pass the course. What would you do if you were in Zach's shoes?

As the Lincoln Alley project manager, Sara is responsible for making sure each team member is contributing to the project. When she learns that Zach is spending his time working for Marcus Bentton and not on the project, she kicks Zach off the team. Do you feel Sara acted appropriately?

Walmart and Procter & Gamble have partnered together to produce a series of original family movies. These films are designed to appeal to all family members and create meaningful viewing events that bring families together. Game of Your Life is the ninth movie in the Family Movie Night series. Other Family Movie Night titles are available on DVD at Walmart, Family Christian Stores and Lifeway Stores.

Moms4FamilyTV is a national group of moms who support and encourage companies that create entertainment options that families can enjoy together. The group works with partner organizations to help spread the word and expand the efforts of these companies. For more information or to learn how you can get involved, please visit www.Moms4FamilyTV.com